

Comparison of Religions - 12th Grade Immanuel Lutheran High School, Professor John Ude

Credits: .6 credits/year. It is a gracious privilege to study God's Word and keep growing in it.

- Objectives:
1. To grow in faith, love and holiness by the power of the Spirit.
 2. To study First Corinthians seeing Christ and Him crucified as the center of all faith and life.
 3. To study various religions in our world as they compare with Christianity.
 4. To study major Christian denominations and Lutheran church bodies as they compare in doctrine and practice with the Church of the Lutheran Confession (CLC).
 5. To improve our ability to discern errors and witness the truth to others.

The Light of Christ moves us to walk as children of the Light Eph. 5:8.

Textbooks: A Binder for Lesson sheets and the New King James Bible (or another reliable Bible translation).